

Felixstowe Fort Project December 2019
Produce 600 Wooden Christmas Trees for Event

Requested to produce 600 wooden Christmas trees for an event. Using a members CNC cutter machine the project was able to produce three trees on one small sheet of plywood.

Once cut all trees were inspected to ensure quality control remained high

Completed, packaged and delivered on time

CNC machine is a computer controlled inverted router fitted on a rigid frame allowing precision cutting.